Dear Porschephiles, The new exco has been keeping us very busy of late. We started out with our annual golf tournament, upholding a PCM tradition that has been going strong the past 16 years. This year's venue was Tropicana Golf Club which hosted more than 60 golfers, an interesting mix of VIPs, seasoned pros and rookies. It was a successful event planned by our golf committee made up of Datuk Derrick Lim, Jason Low, Marc Teo and Derek Cheong. Great job, guys!

Next on the agenda was a visit to the factory of Coffex, a coffee company owned by new member Kelvin Ngow. Twenty of us had an educational visit during which we enjoyed his freshly brewed beverages made from beans imported from all over the world. Those who missed out need not worry as Kelvin is already planning to host another tour.

Another member-owned business we visited was Steak and Lobster at Taman Sri Hartamas. The member in question is Tho Yow Yin, who runs this eatery for fun and out of a passion for food. We enjoyed whole lobsters and 300gm cuts of Australian Wagyu ribeye steaks at very good prices. Those who want to swing by are advised to book in advance as certain cuts and lobsters can sell out pretty quickly. Thanks for the treat, Tho.

Before you begin second-guessing the club's purpose, we are happy to report that we did organise a drive to Port Dickson which attracted 75 members. The 35-car convoy left Petaling Jaya for Avillion Admiral Cove, where a 70-foot yacht awaited us. The short cruise was hosted by Johnnie Walker, who generously presented us with its Platinum Label.

Last but not least, 30 privileged members attended a function which brought together two of our favourite things, luxury watches and sake. It was hosted by Breitling and Kampachi. It was a night tailor-made for watch collectors. Which is why we always recommend that watch-loving PCM members register their interest with Olivia so as to not miss such events.

Moving forward, we have a few international drives coming up, most likely to Europe or Japan. Again, we advise everyone to register early to avoid disappointment. We are also planning a collaboration with Genting to celebrate its 50th anniversary. More details on that in the next issue.

Until then, drive safe Porschephiles.
